Property Description

Discover a rare opportunity to shape a boutique development oasis in the heart of Playa Avellanas, one of Costa Rica's most sought-after coastal destinations. Set on a 1-hectare (10,000m²) mixed-use parcel, this property offers the perfect canvas for a visionary project—whether it's a boutique hotel, horizontal or vertical condominium, wellness retreat, or a curated residential community. The land features a highly desirable rectangular shape, 70 meters of road frontage, and gentle, easy topography, making it exceptionally efficient for planning, design, and construction. A major advantage is the presence of a registered well, ensuring a reliable and abundant water supply—a critical asset for any successful development in the region. Surrounded by lush nature and just a short walk to both the beach and the charming beach town, this property seamlessly blends accessibility with tranquility.
