Property Description

Discover a perfect blend of natural beauty, convenience, and investment potential with this 2,730-square-meter property located in the welcoming rural town of Huacas, Hojancha. Situated at nearly 2,000 feet above sea level, the property enjoys a pleasant year-round climate with refreshing mountain breezes and comfortable temperatures. Just minutes from the town center, it offers easy access to local services while maintaining the peace and tranquility of country living. One of the property's best features is its expansive mountain views. A beautiful, clear stream flows year-round through a small forest of towering mature trees that attracts birds and wildlife while offering shade and privacy. The land features an excellent building site with ample space for a primary residence, gardens, and outdoor living areas. Ideal for a first or second home, boutique bed-and-breakfast, small restaurant, or other tourism-oriented venture.
