Property Description

Are you looking for lots of land for privacy and room to expand as well as a home for sale in Ojochal? This three-bedroom, three-bathroom income property has the track record to inspire even more from this property. This remarkable listing is comprised of a house and two additional lots totalling 3.7 acres with absolutely stunning mountain views. The main floor has a large open-concept kitchen and living room that flows out to an outdoor patio area. This square shaped covered patio leads down to a sizable pool that looks towards the towering mountains in the distance. You could also open up an ocean view window that would be visible from the upstairs balcony with some strategic tree trimming on this property. Walking into the heart of the home feels spacious and inviting, with tall cathedral ceilings and sliding glass doors creating an airy and light sensation. You will find large windows and sliding glass doors in all of the bedrooms as well.
