Property Description

Enjoy the sounds of the crashing surf from this 3 bedroom 2 bath beachfront home. Custom built with precious hardwoods throughout, large open deck areas, and plenty of green space in front and back of the home. Steps on the miles of beach with no crowds, and excellent surf fishing, and a few river mouths nearby where the action is heavy, and some sections of mangroves where you can kayak the estuaries and encounter numerous species of birds. This stretch of beach front is excellent for surfing, and has a handful of homes and very tranquil setting. Nearby beach town to the north Jaco, where you will find many hotels, shops, and restaurants, and Quepos/Manuel Antonio to the south which is the most visited beach area in the country with Manuel Antonio National park being the big draw. If you are seeking peace and tranquility and see yourself reading a book hanging from a hammock and want to walk the beach daily, this is the perfect setup!
