Property Description

One or both of these ocean view lots in sleepy Vista Marina are being sold separately for $150,00 each. They present a fantastic investment opportunity for someone who wants to build their forever home, or for someone who wants to build their forever home and have another vacation rental property. These lots are priced to sell! Both lots feature unobstructed nature views and ocean views of Coco Bay. Hiking and biking trails are located nearby. For anyone who likes privacy and a lifestyle in harmony with nature, these lots are perfect! Both lots front a paved public road and have water and electricity availability. So getting a building permit from the Municipality can begin immediately. Broadband internet is available also. The location is slightly off-the-beaten path, but still close enough to Playas del Coco and all of its restaurants, shops, clinics, hotels, and supermarkets. Perfect for people who like some quiet without being isolated in the middle of nowhere.
