Property Description

Located just minutes to restaurants and supermarkets, this is a nice option for someone looking for a nice lot with a jungle feeling and some privacy. The ideal location allows future owners to enjoy peace and quiet while being close to everything in Ojochal. The lot is also located in a small community of custom homes with gated entrance on a well maintained private road. The property already has all services and one plantel ready to start building your dream home. There is also one part of the property that you can use to grow some fruit trees and have a green house or vegetable garden. From this property you are about 20 mins driving to Uvita and also to Marino Ballena National Park. This beautiful town is growing and there are few private schools in Uvita and Ojochal; so good options for families, business owners, digital nomads, etc. Easy to enjoy morning walks to connect with nature and live a healthy lifestyle in paradise.
