Property Description

This multi-dwelling property has been a favorite of locals for years. Main road frontage and a residential setting allow this property myriad possibilities. The main residence is two levels and features an open social area, half bath, breezeway/garden and has three bedrooms and two and half baths on the second level. The original owner currently uses the extended area for his chiropractic practice which also features a full bathroom, and the space is easily convertible into a separate apartment (independent entrance, own electric meter, etc). Above this area is a brand new, stylish studio apartment full of light which features new appliances, attractive finishes and fixtures and a balcony. The upper apartment effectively is the third dwelling and also has its own electric meter and independent access. The property has paved road access and at least four comfortably parking spaces (including one, covered, attached stall).
