Property Description

This enchanting sanctuary boasts four established building sites, each meticulously positioned to maximize privacy, views, and accessibility. Perched along the coastline, the property provides breathtaking panoramic views of the ocean, creating a serene backdrop for your dream home or development project. The gentle sea breeze and the rhythmic sound of the waves make this location a perfect retreat for those seeking tranquility and a connection with nature. Adding to its allure, this seaside sanctuary reveals three possible natural building sites more, promising hidden wonders waiting to be discovered with its trails along la montaña. Lush pockets of native flora and fauna, these features add an element of mystery and exploration to the property. As if the ocean views weren't enough, the property also boasts a private waterfall and two creeks that runs along the property, water running all year around, enhancing the property's charm and providing a soothing gentle sound of running water becomes a soundtrack to accompany your coastal lifestyle.
