Property Description

For those seeking unparalleled luxury in Costa Rica, Peninsula Papagayo stands out as the premier destination. LaLibertad, a cliffside oasis overlooking the Pacific, embodies luxury with its custom design and breathtaking views of Costa Rica's vibrant landscapes. Completed in 2015, this 3 bedroom, 2.5 bathroom home spans 7158 sqft, marrying European design with local materials. Its location in NW Guanacaste, a mere 40 minutes from Liberia's international airport, grants access to a plethora of amenities, including a top-tier golf course and deep-water marina. Designed with a minimalist modern aesthetic and a focus on outdoor living, the home features Costa Rican oiled teak floors, colored concrete, and custom Balinese doors. The living and dining areas, with their expansive glass doors, offer serene views of the pool and garden. A spacious home office upstairs could be transformed into two additional bedrooms, while the state-of-the-art kitchen boasts high-end appliances and a custom wine cellar.
