Property Description

Cabo Matapalo is a breathtakingly beautiful and relatively untouched slice of paradise located at the tip of the Osa Peninsula in Costa Rica. Known for its breathtaking natural landscapes, abundant wildlife, and pristine beaches, this secluded area provides an unparalleled opportunity to experience the wonders of nature in its most unspoiled form. If you're seeking an off-the-beaten-path destination where adventure and tranquility coexist, Cabo Matapalo is the perfect place to explore. A Natural Wonderland Cabo Matapalo is a haven for nature lovers. Lush rainforests, vibrant coastal ecosystems, and exotic wildlife envelop the area. As part of the greater Osa Peninsula, Cabo Matapalo is located south of the world-famous Corcovado National Park, one of the most biologically diverse places on the planet. This proximity ensures visitors encounter various flora and fauna, including scarlet macaws, howler monkeys, sloths, and the elusive jaguar.
