Property Description

This beautiful 350 square meter lot is nestled in the quiet neighborhood of Las Brisas in Uvita. The views of some old and big trees like for example the Ceiba, make this one very special. Across the street, you have some ocean views for now, but probably it won't last unobstructed forever because there might be a home built on the lot across the street anytime in the future. In only 5 minutes you get down to the highway and in another minute to downtown Uvita or the beautiful beach of the Parque Nacional Marino Ballena. This beach is not only great for surfing but also for families with small kids that need a safe beach without dangerous currents. All the tour operators are located at the park entrance. Whale and dolphin watching, snorkeling, scuba diving, or tours to the Corcovado National Park can be booked there and are some of the main attractions in the area. This property could work perfectly for residential use, but it's also a great location for a rental.
